WELCOME TO THE XVI LATIN AMERICAN THYROID CONGRESS

Dear Colleagues,

It is a great pleasure to receive you all in Rio de Janeiro for the XVI Latin American Thyroid Congress.

The Local Organizing Committee has prepared an enthusiastic reception and social program in order to proportionate you a great time near the ocean, surrounded by mountains, in order to interact with people from all over the world, mainly from Latin America.

The Scientific Committee organized an excellent time schedule in which the news in the clinical and basic thyroid research field is highlighted. Worldwide outstanding specialists will join us during these four days of intense discussion activities.

The Latin American Thyroid Society is full of joy to receive you all for this awesome meeting.

We hope you will enjoy Rio. Let us update ourselves in this wonderful atmosphere.

All the best,
